“The path out of poverty begins with clean water and sanitation”

“World Day for Water” was declared by the United Nations as a day to focus on water and sanitation issues around the world. Central Highlands Water has a WaterAid Committee that is part of a wider network throughout the whole of Australia which is dedicated to raising funds to aid the billions of people around the world with water and sanitation issues.

All funds raised from the Central Highlands Water Charity Golf Day will be donated to WaterAid Australia.
