

Wise Waste Solutions Pty Ltd is seeking a dedicated sales person to head up their sales division.

It would be preferable that the successful person is based in NSW but not essential.

The products that the company has to offer councils is market leaders in the waste water industry and highly sort after.

The person will need to have some knowledge of the waste water industry and good communication skills.

All our business is with local councils so we would expect that the successful applicant would be free to travel through out Australia.

An attractive salary package along with a tiered commission structure will be offered to the successful applicant

Please make application in writing to sales@wisewastesolutions.com setting out your qualification, industry experience and any other items that may assist us.